

GOOD PROGRESS MADE.

Disposed of Ten Pages of the Tariff Bill.

COMMITTEE REPORT SUSTAINED.

Senator Vest Again Led the Opposition and Offered Several Amendments,
Which Were All Rejected—The Cuban
Question in the House.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The senate made good progress on the tariff bill, disposing of about ten pages. Several votes were taken, the finance committee being sustained in each case by majorities varying from 6 to 15. The drug schedule was under discussion and the debate was largely technical. Occasionally, however, it branched off to general phases of the tariff, although at no time during the day was there a speech of more than five minutes' duration. Before taking up the tariff bill the final conference report on the sundry civil bill was agreed to, including the provision suspending until March 1 next the executive order creating extensive forest preserves.

The committee amendments on refined camphor, ground chalk, manufactured chalk and chloroform were agreed to.

Mr. Vest remarked that the chalk item showed another raise above McKinley rates.

When paragraph 19, relating to barks, beans and like drugs, was reached, Mr. Aldrich moved an amendment of $\frac{1}{4}$ cent per pound in addition to the 10 per cent ad valorem provided by the bill. Mr. Aldrich said the foreigners were securing the trade on these classes of drugs under the present arrangement.

Mr. Vest questioned this, saying the Americans controlled the market and exported $900,000 last year. He demanded a rollback, on which the Aldrich amendment was agreed to—35 to 21. The vote was a party one, except that Jones and Stewart (Nev.) and Pettigrew (S. D.) voted in the affirmative.

Committee amendments were agreed to on licorice extract, chicla, magnesia, alizarine assistant, cottonseed oil, poppyseed oil, fusel oil and peppermint oil.

Mr. Aldrich withdrew the committee amendment on opium prepared for smoking, leaving it at $6 per pound.

Mr. Jones (Ark.) resisted the other features of the opium paragraph, saying great increase had been made on a drug of universal use. He moved to amend the rate on morphia from $1 to 50c per ounce and said he would later move to place crude and manufactured opium on the free list. Mr. Jones' amendment was disagreed to—yeas, 24; nays, 39. Mr. McHenry (Dem., La.) and Messrs. Pettigrew, Kyle and Stewart voted with the Republicans and Mr. Heitfeld with the Democrats. In other respects the vote was on party lines.

When varnishes were reached Mr. Vest protested against the increase in duty, but said it was useless to take a vote against it.

Mr. Vest again made a protest on the white lead paragraph, saying the increased duties would accrue to the profits of the lead trust. He moved to reduce the rate from 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents per pound and demanded a yeas and nays vote. The amendment was rejected—yeas, 27; nays, 35—the vote being on party lines, except that Mr. Pettigrew voted with the Democrats and Messrs. Cannon, Heitfeld, Jones (Nev.) and Stewart with the Republicans.

The paint paragraph led to some debate. Mr. Aldrich stated that the increase was justified as a measure of protection to the American paint makers. Mr. Vest answered that the export of \$880,000 worth of paint refuted the claim that the producers needed more protection. The paragraph was agreed to, however, without a vote. On lead litharge Mr. Vest moved an amendment to reduce the duty from 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents, which was agreed to without division.

"I am too much of an American," remarked Mr. Vest, "to think that Niagara Falls needs any protection in order to permit competition with foreign producers."

Senators Caffery, Chilton and Gray spoke against the proposed rate and Messrs. Gallinger (N. H.) and Mr. Gear (Ia.) for it.

Mr. Gallinger stated that this started a new American industry just as protection had started the tinplate industry. "You can build up anything if you only give subsidy enough," declared Mr. Gray. "You can grow oranges under glass in New Hampshire."

When Mr. Caffery opposed increase on potash Mr. Gallinger remarked that it was justified on the same grounds as the bounty to Louisiana sugar producers.

Mr. Caffery responded that a duty on sugar was the keystone of the Democratic arch of a tariff for revenue, and he declared that the sugar bounty of 1890 had been "a demoralizing and debauching gift."

"The senator and his people were the beneficiaries of that gift," interposed Mr. Greer.

There was a proverb, Mr. Caffery said, not to look a gift horse in the mouth. But he insisted that a duty on sugar rather than a bounty was the ideal measure of protection.

The following paragraphs went over: Fourteen, coal tar dyes; 16, collodion; 22, gelatin glue; 38, olive oil; 43, blue; 50, ultramarine blue; 58, phosphorus.

Mr. Aldrich said that in view of the good progress made he would ask to have the bill laid aside. Up to that time paragraph 63, relating to potash, had been disposed of. The senate held a brief executive session and then adjourned.

EXCITING HOUSE SESSION.

Attempt to Bring Up Cuban Question Causes a Stir.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—There was an attempt to bring forward the Cuban question in the house as soon as the journal had been read. Mr. Lewis (Dem., Wash.) shouted, "a question of privilege" and sent to the clerk's desk a resolution for the recognition of the belligerency of the Cubans.

"The gentleman should state his question," Mr. Dingley interposed. This Mr. Lewis began to do, saying that the senate had recently passed such a resolution and that the house should take it up. Mr. Dingley made the point that this was not a privileged question, but Speaker Reed said nothing and Mr. Lewis proceeded with a parliamentary argument. He contended that any question dealing with the foreign relations of the government was one of the highest privilege. The speaker permitted the resolution to be read. It is as follows:

Whereas, The United States senate assembled has duly, by a proper form of resolution, declared for a state of neutrality, according to the island of Cuba all rights as a belligerent against Spain; and

Whereas, It is asserted that such right of recognition exists only with the executive of the United States; therefore, be it Resolved, By the house of representatives, that as a foreign policy of the United States it is the right and authority of the senate and house of representatives in adopting a foreign policy of the United States to recognize as congress the belligerency of and declare the attitude of neutrality of the United States to the island of Cuba or any other government or country when in the sense of the house such course is demanded by existing conditions.

The resolution having been read Mr. Reed promptly declared it out of order.

"Such a resolution can be introduced in the regular course and can be referred to a committee," he said.

"Does the speaker hold that the resolution should be referred to some committee that is yet to be appointed?" Mr. Lewis inquired.

"Certainly," replied Mr. Reed tersely.

From this ruling Mr. Lewis appealed and Mr. Dingley's motion to table the appeal was carried—91 to 57.

On a roll call the speaker was sustained—88 to 51; present and not voting, 17, and he announced "no quorum."

Immediately Mr. Dingley moved to adjourn, and, with several Democrats shouting for recognition, the motion was carried by a party vote, and the house adjourned to Monday.

THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIANS.

They Want the Heresy Charge Decided as Soon as Possible.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., May 28.—The crisis in the affairs of the Reformed Presbyterian church which has been precipitated by the filing of charges of heresy against Rev. Dr. McAllister by Rev. Dr. Wilson was the absorbing topic of conversations among the members of the synod of that church now in session at Beaver Falls, Pa. The prevailing sentiment seemed to be that the issue should be met as speedily as possible.

A number of liberals met in the basement of the church and formally organized a meeting for the discussion of the advisability of starting a new church paper or reviving one which suspended publication a few years ago. The Christian Nation is the only paper of a religious character now published for the benefit of Reformed Presbyterians.

The synod rested from its labors by attending the commencement exercises at Geneva college.

To Tax Certain Occupations.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Representative Wheeler of Kentucky has introduced a bill in the house for taxing certain occupations. The taxes proposed are based on the amounts of capital invested. Companies engaged in petroleum business in any form are to be taxed from $500 on $100,000 to $25,000 on $5,000,000. Other branches of business to be taxed are iron and steel railways and street railways, banks, Stock Exchanges and glass, wool, silk, paper, leather and sugar manufacturing.

SHOT HER FRIEND.

Playfully Points a Shotgun and the Weapon Is Discharged.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., May 28.—At a birthday party in Shenango township Miss Emma Lutz picked up a shotgun, which she didn't know was loaded, and, playfully pointing it at Miss Minnie Leight, who was reclining on a sofa, told her that if she did not be quiet she would shoot her.

Some one called to Miss Lutz to put down the gun, but at that instant it was discharged, blowing Miss Leight's brains all over the room. Miss Lutz is frantic with grief.

NEXT MEETING PLACE.

The Presbyterian General Assembly Selects Winona.

PROCEEDINGS VERY INTERESTING.

Philadelphia and Minneapolis Also Wanted the Assembly Next Time—The Board of Aid For College Make a Report—In Need of More Money.

EAGLE LAKE, Ind., May 28.—The main question of importance before the Presbyterian general assembly was that of the next place of meeting. It was decided upon grounds which were quite new to general assemblies. These reasons are given below in the words of the advocates of Winona. The number of attendants at the assembly has been augmented, in spite of departures, by arrivals, and interest in the proceedings has not seemed to lag in spite of the fact that the bulk of the topics considered are those which are mainly of strictly denominational interest.

The interests of the American Sabbath union occupied the time of the Presbyterian general assembly during the first half hour, usually devoted to devotional exercises. Dr. J. W. Hathaway, president of the union, presided and made remarks during which he said that the desecration of the Sabbath in America had no parallel in Europe. A report was made by Dr. Withrow of the committee on bills and overtures, concerning organic union with the Southern Presbyterian church. The following answer was made and adopted by the assembly: "We reiterate our readiness to take active steps toward such union as soon as the Lord in his providence shall open the way."

An official letter and salutations were ordered sent to the general synod of the German Reformed church. A negative answer was sent to the request of the National Temperance union that the assembly send a delegate to their convention. A committee of 15 was ordered appointed representative of all shades of opinion in the church to arrange a plan of co-operation and harmonize all interests engaged in the work of home missions. The importance of this action lies in the fact that the contest over the board of home missions in the assembly this week grew out of differences of opinion upon this subject.

Elder James A. Mount, governor of Indiana, chairman of the committee to make recommendations as to the two hundred and fiftieth celebration of the adoption of the Westminster confessional standards, reported resolutions providing for the appointment of a committee of 15 and fixing the second Thursday of the assembly sessions in 1898 as the time of the celebration. In urging the adoption of the report Governor Mount spoke of the profound influence of the Presbyterian system in the progress and establishment of civil liberty. His remarks were greeted with hearty applause.

The rest of the order was report on work of board of aid for colleges. It was presented by the Rev. Edward C. Kay, D. D., and a summary follows:

"The year closes with funds on hand to pay all appropriations voted. Thirty institutions have been aided. Six aided the previous year were not aided this year. Most institutions have suffered severe reductions in income and have been able to keep open only by great sacrifices made by instructors or by local friends. The number of students was 2,610, being (for the same institutions) 60 more than in 1895-6, and the number of college classes also increased; but there was a considerable decrease in the number of classical courses.

"Unless the board shall soon be enabled, by more and larger church offerings to its general fund, to grant much larger current aid to institutions; and unless it shall be enabled, by more and larger legacies and individual gifts to its property fund, to secure endowments for institutions, some institutions which render eminent service to the church and are both needed and desired in their several regions are likely to close their doors.

The decision as to the place of next meeting of the assembly occupied the remainder of the session. Invitations were received from the Westminster church of Philadelphia, from the presbytery of Philadelphia to meet in the new Witherspoon building of the board of publication, and from the directors of Winona assembly. Dr. Robert F. Sample of New York spoke for Minneapolis briefly. The interests of Philadelphia were looked after by Dr. Stephen W. Dana, Dr. J. S. McIntosh, Dr. Elijah R. Craven and Dr. J. Gray Bolton. They urged as reasons that the influence of the assembly should be exerted in populous cities, so that the interests of the Presbyterian church might thereby be advanced.

The advocates of Winona were Elder Thomas Kane of Chicago, Dr. John L. Withrow, ex-moderator of the assembly, Dr. William C. Gray, editor of The Interior, of Chicago, and others. When Mr. Kane said that to refuse to return to Winona would be to express disapproval of the place he was greeted with cries of "no, no." He then added: "We want you to come again as an endorsement of Winona." Dr. Gray said: "Come again and endorse us, and it will lift us out of our troubles. You can go to Philadelphia at a more opportune time, when it will do us no harm. We won't ask you again."

The vote was then taken on Minneapolis, but only two votes were recorded in its favor.

One hundred and fifty votes were recorded in favor of Philadelphia, but a large majority voted against it. It was taken for granted that these were all in favor of Winona and a motion was made to make the vote on that place unanimous. In spite of a considerable chorus of "noes" the motion was carried.

A fraternal communication was read from the Reformed Dutch church and the delegate from the United Presbyterian church, Dr. A. M. Campbell of Princeton, Ind., was heard. Dr. William S. Marquis was elected as a delegate from the assembly to bear a greeting to the United Presbyterian assembly now sitting at Rock Island.

Dr. Wilson Phraner was appointed the assembly's delegate to the general synod of the Reformed Dutch church, which is to meet in June.

THE POPE PRESIDED.

The Canonization Ceremonies of the Founders of the Barnabites.

ROME, May 28.—The canonization of the blessed Zaccaria, founder of the order of Barnabites, and of the blessed Fourier de Maitinoour, surnamed the Apostle of Lorraine, was the most impressive ceremony witnessed at St. Peter's since the abolition of the temporal power of the popes.

It was divided into three parts, namely, the request of the pope to grant the canonization, the proclamation canonizing the blessed Zaccaria and the blessed Fourier, and the pontifical mass. Cardinal Gaetano Aloisi-Maselli, prefect of the congregation of Sacred Rites, the advocate of the cause of canonizing, formally demanded that the blessed Zaccaria and the blessed Fourier be inscribed on the roll of saints, making the demand thrice, instant, instantius and instantissim.

After the first request the pope intoned the litany of the saints. After the second request his holiness intoned "The Vini Creator." After the third request his holiness, wearing the mitre of doctor of the church, proclaimed the new saints. The pope then authorized the official act of proclamation and afterward intoned the te deum in which the entire congregation joined. At the same time the bells of the Vatican and of the Basilica were tolled and they set ringing the bells of all churches in Rome.

HAVEMEYER'S CASE DISMISSED.

The Judge Sustained the Motion of the Defense for Acquittal.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—"Certainly I am satisfied with the verdict," said Henry O. Havemeyer to your reporter a few minutes after the jury had returned a verdict of not guilty. "The verdict," he continued, "ought to be satisfactory to every decent man in this and every other community." That was the only expression the president of the American Sugar Refining company would make upon the result of the trial which had been in progress for three days before Judge Bradley.

The conclusion of the trial was abrupt. The defense produced no witnesses. When the government rested its case the defense moved that the court instruct the jury to order an acquittal on six grounds, the principal one of which was that the committee did not have jurisdiction and that the question asked was not pertinent. The district attorney made a valiant attempt to induce the presiding judge to overrule the motion. But the court, after taking an hour and a half to weigh the arguments, sustained the motion. Although the verdict of "not guilty" was given by the jury, it was a verdict returned under the court's directions, and amounted practically to the judge's throwing the case out of court.

Pennsylvania Railroad Report.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 28.—The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company which operates the Pennsylvania railroad system west of Pittsburgh met here and adopted the annual report, which will be submitted to the meeting of stockholders at Pittsburgh next Tuesday. The income account in the report shows a net profit for the year of 1896, after paying all expenses, interest, rentals, advances, etc., of $238,266.

Boys Struck by Lightning.

RIPELY, O., May 28.—During a thunder storm the residence of Captain A. Fleisher at Levanna, two miles west of here, was struck by lightning and damaged considerably. Harry Fleisher and a young man named Barrett were in bed. They were both struck and their bed demolished. Barrett bears a long mark on his leg, while Fleisher has a red stripe around his waist. They are both able to be out.

Military Surgeons Elect Officers.

COLUMBUS, May 28.—The nominating committee of the National Association of Military surgeons elected the following officers: President, Brigadier General (retired) Jefferson D. Griffith, surgeon general N. G. Mo., Kansas City, Mo.; secretary, Captain James E. Pilcher, assistant surgeon U. S. A., Columbus, O.; treasurer, Major James Jay Erwin, assistant surgeon O. N. G., Cleveland. Kansas City was selected as the next place of the meeting.

FAMILIES HOMELESS.

The Town of El Paso Partly Under Water.

BUSINESS PORTION THREATENED.

Fire Bells Warn the People That the Flood Was Upon Them—Many Houses Go Down in the Torrent—Men Throwing Up New Levees.

EL PASO, Tex., May 28.—The river showed a rise of six inches over last report and the water was sweeping down the river at a terrific rate. The headgate of the canal which is above the levee, began to give way and 500 men with logs, sacks of sand and water balls were put to work to prevent a break at the headgate while about 1,000 men were stretched along the improvised levee at the other side of the city, where the water continued to creep up. The headgate gave way with a rush and a roar, the river pouring into the canal. The fire alarm was sounded to warn people in the lower districts and in an instant the city was in such wild confusion that for half an hour it was impossible to make any organized effort to take another stand against the waters, which were soon over the banks of the canal, inundating the territory through which it passed on both sides.

The people living along the banks of the canal are the poor laboring classes, and their homes were soon full of water. Fathers and mothers had to wade through the water from their homes, taking their children in their arms. The houses, being in most cases made of adobe, melted away at the touch of the rushing torrents and household furniture, clothing, etc., were floating around in all directions.

The levee at the foot of El Paso street broke and in a short time 20 little residences in that locality were flooded. By this time the people for three blocks north of the flood were moving out and the streets were thronged with wagons, carts and wheelbarrows loaded with the belongings of those fleeing from the rising waters. For three miles across the town and the river front everybody is moving up into the business portion of the city and to the more elevated residence sections.

The levee on Sixth street has been abandoned by the city, and Mayor Magoffy put several hundred men and teams to work throwing up a new levee on Fourth street, from the Santa Fe across eight blocks to Tago street.

The river is still rising, the water threatening the business portion of the city. Men are hard at work trying to save the two street railway bridges. Thousands of citizens are watching the raging waters. If the river rises ten inches more it will flood the business portion of El Paso.

A SERIOUS COLLISION.

A Freight Train Ran Away and Crashed into a Passenger.

POCATELLO, Ida., May 28.—A head-end collision between a freight and a passenger train at American Falls, 25 miles west of here, caused the death, so far as known, of nine men and the serious injury of eight others.

The westbound passenger train was waiting for the freight at American falls, standing in front of the station building. The freight coming east ran away on the hill west of the falls. It is thought the air was tampered with. The freight was running 50 miles an hour, crashed into the passenger train, which was already backing up right in front of the station. Two men were on the station platform. One was killed and the other fatally injured. The station building was shattered. Both engines were converted into scrap iron and 20 freight cars were piled up in a heap.

Eight boxcar passengers, sheep shearers and tramps, were crushed to death. George Moore, the engineer of the freight, is seriously injured. The fireman, Dick Cosgrove, had a leg broken, and C. E. Heckman, engineer of the passenger, sustained slight injuries. He stayed by his engine and reversed it. The conductor and brakeman were on top of the freight setting the brakes and Fireman Cosgrove had climbed back to help when the crash came.

A DESPERATE SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Two Persons Killed and Several Wounded—Caused by Drink.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 28.—The little town of Oakman, Walker county, has been the scene of a desperate shooting affray. Charles Williams, a traveling machinist, who recently came to Oakman from Mississippi to secure work at the coal mines, while intoxicated entered the store of Appling Bros., the largest business house at Oakman, and became very boisterous. Mayor Appling, after ordering him out, was about to call a policeman when Williams drew a revolver and opened fire on Appling, who fell dead at the first shot with a bullet in his heart.

Montgomery Appling, who was standing behind the counter only a few feet away, snatched up a Winchester rifle and began firing on the murderer.

In urging the adoption of the report Governor Mount spoke of the profound influence of the Presbyterian system in the progress and establishment of civil liberty. His remarks were greeted with hearty applause.

The rest of the order was report on work of board of aid for colleges. It was presented by the Rev. Edward C. Kay, D. D., and a summary follows: "The year closes with funds on hand to pay all appropriations voted. Thirty institutions have been aided. Six aided the previous year were not aided this year. Most institutions have suffered severe reductions in income and have been able to keep open only by great sacrifices made by instructors or by local friends. The number of students was 2,610, being (for the same institutions) 60 more than in 1895-6, and the number of college classes also increased; but there was a considerable decrease in the number of classical courses.

"Unless the board shall soon be enabled, by more and larger church offerings to its general fund, to grant much larger current aid to institutions; and unless it shall be enabled, by more and larger legacies and individual gifts to its property fund, to secure endowments for institutions, some institutions which render eminent service to the church and are both needed and desired in their several regions are likely to close their doors.

The decision as to the place of next meeting of the assembly occupied the remainder of the session. Invitations were received from the Westminster church of Minneapolis, from the presbytery of Philadelphia to meet in the new Witherspoon building of the board of publication, and from the directors of Winona assembly. Dr. Robert F. Sample of New York spoke for Minneapolis briefly. The interests of Philadelphia were looked after by Dr. Stephen W. Dana, Dr. J. S. McIntosh, Dr. Elijah R. Craven and Dr. J. Gray Bolton. They urged as reasons that the influence of the assembly should be exerted in populous cities, so that the interests of the Presbyterian church might thereby be advanced.

The advocates of Winona were Elder Thomas Kane of Chicago, Dr. John L. Withrow, ex-moderator of the assembly, Dr. William C. Gray, editor of The Interior, of Chicago, and others. When Mr. Kane said that to refuse to return to Winona would be to express disapproval of the place he was greeted with cries of "no, no." He then added: "We want you to come again as an endorsement of Winona." Dr. Gray said: "Come again and endorse us, and it will lift us out of our troubles. You can go to Philadelphia

The vote was then taken on Minneapolis, but only two votes were recorded in its favor.

One hundred and fifty votes were recorded in favor of Philadelphia, but a large majority voted against it. It was taken for granted that these were all in favor of Winona and a motion was made to make the vote on that place unanimous. In spite of a considerable chorus of "noes" the motion was declared carried.

A fraternal communication was read from the Reformed Dutch church and the delegate from the United Presbyterian church, Dr. A. M. Campbell of Princeton, Ind., was heard. Dr. William S. Marquis was elected as a delegate from the assembly to bear a greeting to the United Presbyterian assembly now sitting at Rock Island.

Dr. Wilson Phrazer was appointed the assembly's delegate to the general synod of the Reformed Dutch church, which is to meet in June.

THE POPE PRESIDED.

The Canonization Ceremonies of the Founders of the Barnabites.

ROME, May 28.—The canonization of the blessed Zaccaria, founder of the order of Barnabites, and of the blessed Fourier de Matinour, surnamed the Apostle of Lorraine, was the most impressive ceremony witnessed at St. Peter's since the abolition of the temporal power of the popes.

It was divided into three parts, namely, the request of the pope to grant the canonization, the proclamation canonizing the blessed Zaccaria and the blessed Fourier, and the pontifical mass. Cardinal Gaetano Aloisi-Maselli, prefect of the congregation of Sacred Rites, the advocate of the cause of canonizing, formally demanded that the blessed Zaccaria and the blessed Fourier be inscribed on the roll of saints, making the demand thrice, instant, instantius and instantissimum.

After the first request the pope intoned the litany of the saints. After the second request his holiness intoned "The Vini Creator." After the third request his holiness, wearing the mitre of doctor of the church, proclaimed the new saints. The pope then authorized the official act of proclamation and afterward intoned the te deum in which the entire congregation joined. At the same time the bells of the Vatican and of the Basilica were tolled and they set ringing the bells of all churches in Rome.

HAVEMEYER'S CASE DISMISSED.

The Judge Sustained the Motion of the Defense for Acquittal.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—"Certainly I am satisfied with the verdict," said Henry O. Havemeyer to your reporter a few minutes after the jury had returned a verdict of not guilty. "The verdict," he continued, "ought to be satisfactory to every decent man in this and every other community." That was the only expression the president of the American Sugar Refining company would make upon the result of the trial which had been in progress for three days before Judge Bradley.

The conclusion of the trial was abrupt. The defense produced no witnesses. When the government rested its case the defense moved that the court instruct the jury to order an acquittal on six grounds, the principal one of which was that the committee did not have jurisdiction and that the question asked was not pertinent. The district attorney made a valiant attempt to induce the presiding judge to overrule the motion. But the court, after taking an hour and a half to weigh the arguments, sustained the motion. Although the verdict of "not guilty" was given by the jury, it was a verdict returned under the court's directions, and amounted practically to the judge's throwing the case out of court.

Pennsylvania Railroad Report.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 28.—The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company which operates the Pennsylvania railroad system west of Pittsburgh met here and adopted the annual report, which will be submitted to the meeting of stockholders at Pittsburgh next Tuesday. The income account in the report shows a net profit for the year of 1896, after paying all expenses, interest, rentals, advances, etc., of $238,266.

Boys Struck by Lightning.

RIPLEY, O., May 28.—During a thunder storm the residence of Captain A. Flesher at Levanua, two miles west of here, was struck by lightning and damaged considerably. Harry Flesher and a young man named Barrett were in bed. They were both struck and their bed demolished. Barrett bears a long mark on his leg, while Flesher has a red stripe around his waist. They are both able to be out.

Military Surgeons Elect Officers.

COLUMBUS, May 28.—The nominating committee of the National Association of Military surgeons elected the following officers: President, Brigadier General (retired) Jefferson D. Griffith, surgeon general N. G. Mo., Kansas City, Mo.; secretary, Captain James E. Pilcher, assistant surgeon U. S. A., Columbus, O.; treasurer, Major James Jay Erwin, assistant surgeon O. N. G., Cleveland. Kansas City was selected as the next place of the meeting.

FAMILIES HOMELESS.

The Town of El Paso Partly Under Water.

BUSINESS PORTION THREATENED.

Fire Bells Warn the People That the Flood Was Upon Them—Many Houses Go Down in the Torrent—Men Throwing Up New Levees.

EL PASO, Tex., May 28.—The river showed a rise of six inches over last report and the water was sweeping down the river at a terrific rate. The headgate of the canal which is above the levee, began to give way and 500 men with logs, sacks of sand and water barrels were put to work to prevent a break at the headgate while about 1,000 men were stretched along the improvised levee at the other side of the city, where the water continued to creep up. The headgate gave way with a rush and a roar, the river pouring into the canal. The fire alarm was sounded to warn people in the lower districts and in an instant the city was in such wild confusion that for half an hour it was impossible to make any organized effort to take another stand against the waters, which were soon over the banks of the canal, inundating the territory through which it passed on both sides.

The people living along the banks of the canal are the poor laboring classes, and their homes were soon full of water. Fathers and mothers had to wade through the water from their homes, taking their children in their arms. The houses, being in most cases made of adobe, melted away at the touch of the rushing torrents and household furniture, clothing, etc., were floating around in all directions.

The levee at the foot of El Paso street broke and in a short time 20 little residences in that locality were flooded. By this time the people for three blocks north of the flood were moving out and the streets were thronged with wagons, carts and wheelbarrows loaded with the belongings of those fleeing from the rising waters. For three miles across the town and the river front everybody is moving up into the business portion of the city and to the more elevated residence sections.

The levee on Sixth street has been abandoned by the city, and Mayor Maggoff put several hundred men and teams to work throwing up a new levee on Fourth street, from the Santa Fe across eight blocks to Tago street.

The river is still rising, the water threatening the business portion of the city. Men are hard at work trying to save the two street railway bridges. Thousands of citizens are watching the raging waters. If the river rises ten inches more it will flood the business portion of El Paso.

A SERIOUS COLLISION.

A Freight Train Ran Away and Crashed Into a Passenger.

POCATELLO, Ida., May 28.—A head-end collision between a freight and a passenger train at American Falls, 25 miles west of here, caused the death, so far as known, of nine men and the serious injury of eight others.

The westbound passenger train was waiting for the freight at American falls, standing in front of the station building. The freight coming east ran away on the hill west of the falls. It is thought the air was tampered with. The freight was running 50 miles an hour, crashed into the passenger train, which was already backing up right in front of the station. Two men were on the station platform. One was killed and the other fatally injured. The station building was shattered. Both engines were converted into scrap iron and 20 freight cars were piled up in a heap.

Eight boxcar passengers, sheep shearers and tramps, were crushed to death. George Moore, the engineer of the freight, is seriously injured. The fireman, Dick Cosgrove, had a leg broken, and C. E. Heckman, engineer of the passenger, sustained slight injuries. He stayed by his engine and reversed it. The conductor and brakeman were on top of the freight setting the brakes and Fireman Cosgrove had climbed back to help when the crash came.

A DESPERATE SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Two Persons Killed and Several Wounded—Caused by Drink.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 28.—The little town of Oakman, Walker county, has been the scene of a desperate shooting affray. Charles Williams, a traveling machinist, who recently came to Oakman from Mississippi to secure work at the coal mines, while intoxicated entered the store of Appling Bros., the largest business house at Oakman, and became very boisterous. Mayor Appling, after ordering him out, was about to call a policeman when Williams drew a revolver and opened fire on Appling, who fell dead at the first shot with a bullet in his heart.

Montgomery Appling, who was standing behind the counter only a few feet away, snatched up a Winchester rifle and began firing on the murderer.

NO MORE WORK ON HOLIDAYS

They Do Not Want Any of Their Time Taken on These Vacations—The New Rule Becomes Operative at Once, and an Order Has Been Issued.

The clerks' union held an important session, last evening.

There was a very good attendance, three new members were initiated and John Anderson was elected a delegate to the national convention which convenes in July at Toledo.

In view of the fact that Decoration day is so near at hand the subject of legal holidays was broached. Considerable discussion was had on the subject, but the unanimous opinion of all present was in favor of doing no work on that day. Accordingly a resolution was passed, notifying all union clerks to do no work on Monday, as it is a legal holiday.

This will probably suit the greater number of the business men, as they are just as eager to get a holiday as are their clerks.

A Happy Meeting.

A most touching scene was witnessed in the streets of Paris recently. A little girl of about 5 years of age was rolling her hoop. The hoop rolled up against a gentleman sitting on a bench, and the child, going up to him to get it, looked at him involuntarily and suddenly cried out, "Oh, if there isn't the gentleman of mamma's miniature!"

This exclamation of course attracted the attention of passersby and of a young woman, who immediately came up to the child, and, giving a glance at the gentleman, fainted away. He appeared stupefied and stared from the child to her mother as if he were losing his senses, but when he saw the latter unconscious on the ground he caught her up, clasped her in his arms and covered her with kisses. She soon regained her senses and fell weeping on the gentleman's bosom. An officer, coming up, led them off, with the little girl, and, calling a carriage, put them in, but the bystanders had already learned their history from their different exclamations.

Five years before, they were married, with every prospect of happiness before them, but the husband, being young, was led astray by dissipated associates and becoming jealous of his wife treated her so unkindly that she finally left him and took a humble lodging in a different quarter of the city, where she soon after gave birth to a little daughter and since that time had supported herself and child by her needle. The husband had sought his wife in vain and had at last come to the sad conclusion that she had put an end to her existence. This thought had such an effect upon his mind as to cure him not only of his jealousy, but of his vices, and he had since been living a most exemplary life, consecrating all his thoughts to the memory of his lost wife.—New York Ledger.

Cleaning Eyeglasses.

"Spectacles and eyeglasses are as much benefited by a bath now and then as people are," remarked a well known optician. "It is strange how many people there are who think that their glasses only need an occasional wiping. Now, the fact is glasses require actual baths as frequently as does the ordinary person. The process is as simple as you want to make it. My plan, however, is to take the glasses to a washbowl and give them a good soaking in warm water. Then apply soap freely and rub it off by the use of a soft tooth or nail brush. After that give them a polish with any of the usual tooth powders and then clean them with tissue paper, which is much better for the purpose than chamois skin or anything else that I know of.

"The ordinary cleaning is all right as far as it goes, but it is not sufficient. Many a person has done great injury to his eyes by neglecting to properly clean his glasses. I have had a number of patients come to me with complaints about what they called gradual diminution of their sight. An examination revealed the fact that it was wonderful that they could see at all, for their glasses were gummed over and had been fearfully neglected. A little soap and water, to which a few drops of ammonia were added, did the business."—Washington Star.

HIS SENSATIONAL STORY.

Clifton Knorr Tells of the Dynamite Plot on the Stand.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., May 28.—The third day of the trial of L. S. Wintersteen for conspiracy to murder by an attempt to blow up the residence of Levi E. Waller with dynamite was resumed. Clifton Knorr, whose testimony yesterday created a profound sensation, gave a long account of the events following his flight to Reading. He said that Wintersteen had coached him thoroughly on the part he had to play, and promised to defend him in case he was arrested after the dynamite outrage.

He also told how he had corresponded with Wintersteen under the name of Miss Mame Wilson to prevent being traced by his letters. The story was long and somewhat involved, but sounded more like a sensational novel than a relation of actual facts. Wintersteen, according to Knorr, displayed fiendish ingenuity in his plans to baffle the detectives and carry out his plots. When the desirability of murdering Mrs. Knorr was broached witness said Wintersteen had gotten diphtheria germs to use in lieu of poison to prevent detection of the crime. These, however, witness said he had destroyed. "The reason I used dynamite," he said, "was because Wintersteen told me to. I had been fooling him so long I was afraid to further deceive him.

SETTLED THE DISPUTE.

Express Companies Will Pay Taxes Under the Nichols Law.

COLUMBUS, May 28.—The state board of appraisers and assessors in conference with Governor Bushnell have effected a settlement that will bring $50,000 into the state treasury and enrich every county in Ohio.

The settlement was in regard to the paying of taxes by the various express companies under both the Nichols and the excise tax laws. By the agreement reached the companies are to pay all taxes assessed against them under both laws, and to do so at once. In view of this all suits now pending under the excise law in the state and federal courts are to be dropped.

In the settlement the state agrees not to press the suits to collect the 20 per cent penalty for nonpayment of the Nichols tax during litigation, and the express companies agree not to cause the state any further expense in defending the constitutionality of the excise law.

SILVER REPUBLICANS CONFER.

A Lively Discussion Over Reorganization—Condemn the Dana Law.

COLUMBUS, May 28.—About 100 persons were present when the state conference of free silver Republicans, called by State Chairman Davis of Findlay, opened.

Allen W. Thurman, Democratic candidate for governor, General A. J. Warner and Hon. C. A. Towne of Minnesota, national provisional chairman, were present. There was a lively discussion over a resolution introduced declaring in favor of reorganizing the Republican party and it was voted down.

A resolution was adopted providing for the organization of a state central committee, and giving it authority to decide whether an independent ticket should be nominated. The Dana law, preventing the name of a candidate from appearing more than once on the Australian ballot, was condemned.

Church Trouble Settled.

TOLEDO, May 28.—The long legal controversy among the members of the church of United Brethren in Christ has been settled by Judge Taft, who filed a memorandum in a decree in the United States district court. The trouble arose over a certain election of church officers on which two factions divided. The liberal element won and the other faction went to law to oust the liberals and gain possession of the church property. He decided the liberals were in legal possession of the property.

A Lawsuit For $600,000.

JEFFERSON, O., May 28.—The big lawsuit in which Mary and Albert Fields are seeking to recover $600,000 from the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad company and William K. Vanderbilt for 40 acres of land claimed to be unlawfully occupied by the defendants at Ahrtabuta Harbor, has been placed on trial to a jury in common pleas court. Congressman Northway, Lieutenant Governor Jones, George C. Greene of Buffalo and W. F. Carr of Cleveland are among the counsel engaged.

McIlyear's Whereabouts a Mystery.

CAMBRIDGE, O., May 28.—The whereabouts of Postmaster McIlyear, who has disappeared, remains a mystery. Many think he committed suicide as his father did, while others think he is in hiding, since the Central National bank filed a petition in attachment in the common pleas court. Attachments have been filed for a total of $6,577. Inspector-in-Charge J. F. Salmon is making an investigation of the post-office affairs.

Basely Deceived.

"Yes," she said bitterly, "I must confess that he deceived me as to his habits."

"Does he drink or gamble or anything of that kind?" inquired the other.

"No. Before we were wed he led me to believe that he had a habit of talking in his sleep about all his doings. And he does not."—Indianapolis Journal.

PHOENIX LINES AGAIN

Revival of Talk Upon an Old Subject.

MUST COME TO LIVERPOOL

It Is Only a Matter of Time Until the Telephone System Will Be Extended Up the River—Something May Be Done Next Fall—A Stockholder's View.

There promises to be a revival of the movement to have the Phoenix telephone company extend its system from Toronto and establish an exchange in this city.

The matter has been discussed in a quiet way for several weeks, and the presence in the city yesterday of W. J. Miller, of Toronto, only added to the reports. Mr. Miller is prominently connected with the Phoenix company, but would give out nothing in the way of particulars as to what the company would do. He stated, however, that the lines would be extended to East Liverpool and Wellsville, but would say nothing as to the time when work would be commenced. At present the company is spending a great deal of money connecting Wellsburg with the system and putting in long distance telephones in all the Ohio valley towns it serves. When this is done attention will be turned to other territory, and this place will in all probability be the first upon which the Phoenix will look. The stockholders are by no means put out because of the recent decision of the supreme court, but on the other hand look upon it as a very good thing since it will force the proposed consolidation of local companies.

NOT SO GOOD

Was the Pottery Trade For This Week.

In reviewing the crockery trade for this week China, Glass and Lamps say:

"There has been quite a falling off in the demand for crockery ware at most of the manufacturing centers during the past week or two. Manufacturers ascribe this to the doubts that exist as to the final outcome of the tariff measures—for there are practically two of them—now before congress, and the natural unwillingness of dealers to operate largely while these matters are in obeyance. The decision which now seems to have been reached on all sides to forego the retroactive clause of the Dingley bill has imparted new strength to the inflow of foreign goods and the idea prevails that no matter what rate of duty is imposed finally the wares now being imported and which have been coming in on so large a scale for some time past will be offered at a very low figure before new laws have time to take effect."

NO DAMAGE.

Although Frosts Have Scared Farmers Near Calcutta.

Farmers in the vicinity of Calcutta have been more or less alarmed because of the frost. Wednesday, Thursday and this morning the white frost was plainly seen, but so far as is known there was no damage. Farmers believe that plants are becoming accustomed to these visitations for look as they will they can find no trace of damage of any sort.

The Cut Has Come.

Henry Chambers & Son, East End, have determined to meet the competition of Pittsburg department stores, and have cut the price of Morado bicycles to $40. This is one of the best wheels in the market, and when it is remembered that it never before sold for less than $60, the extent of the reduction can be seen. Chambers & Son have a dozen of these wheels in stock. *

A resolution was adopted providing for the organization of a state central committee, and giving it authority to decide whether an independent ticket should be nominated. The Dana law, preventing the name of a candidate from appearing more than once on the Australian ballot, was condemned.

Church Trouble Settled.

TOLEDO, May 28.—The long legal controversy among the members of the church of United Brethren in Christ has been settled by Judge Taft, who filed a memorandum in a decree in the United States district court. The trouble arose over a certain election of church officers on which two factions divided. The liberal element won and the other faction went to law to oust the liberals and gain possession of the church property. He decided the liberals were in legal possession of the property.

A Lawsuit For $600,000.

JEFFERSON, O., May 28.—The big lawsuit in which Mary and Albert Fields are seeking to recover $600,000 from the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad company and William K. Vanderbilt for 40 acres of land claimed to be unlawfully occupied by the defendants at Ahthabuta Harbor, has been placed on trial to a jury in common pleas court. Congressman Northway, Lieutenant Governor Jones, George C. Greene of Buffalo and W. F. Carr of Cleveland are among the counsel engaged.

McLyear's Whereabouts a Mystery.

CAMBRIDGE, O., May 28.—The whereabouts of Postmaster McLyear, who has disappeared, remains a mystery. Many think he committed suicide as his father did, while others think he is in hiding, since the Central National bank filed a petition in attachment in the common pleas court. Attachments have been filed for a total of $6,577. Inspector-in-Charge J. F. Salmon is making an investigation of the post-office affairs.

Basely Deceived.

"Yes," she said bitterly, "I must confess that he deceived me as to his habits."
"Does he drink or gamble or anything of that kind?" inquired the other.
"No. Before we were wed he led me to believe that he had a habit of talking in his sleep about all his doings. And he does not."—Indianapolis Journal.

Friendships are not uncommon between the cat and dog, and have been known between a dog and a wolf, but the mutual attitude of the weasel and rat is invariably war—war that is waged to the death.

PHOENIX LINES AGAIN

Revival of Talk Upon an Old Subject.

MUST COME TO LIVERPOOL

It Is Only a Matter of Time Until the Telephone System Will Be Extended Up the River—Something May Be Done Next Fall—A Stockholder's View.

There promises to be a revival of the movement to have the Phoenix telephone company extend its system from Toronto and establish an exchange in this city.

The matter has been discussed in a quiet way for several weeks, and the presence in the city yesterday of W. J. Miller, of Toronto, only added to the reports. Mr. Miller is prominently connected with the Phoenix company, but would give out nothing in the way of particulars as to what the company would do. He stated, however, that the lines would be extended to East Liverpool and Wellsville, but would say nothing as to the time when work would be commenced. At present the company is spending a great deal of money connecting Wellburg with the system and putting in long distance telephones in all the Ohio valley towns it serves. When this is done attention will be turned to other territory, and this place will in all probability be the first upon which the Phoenix will look. The stockholders are by no means put out because of the recent decision of the supreme court, but on the other hand look upon it as a very good thing since it will force the proposed consolidation of local companies.

NOT SO GOOD

Was the Pottery Trade For This Week.

In reviewing the crockery trade for this week China, Glass and Lamps says: "There has been quite a falling off in the demand for crockery ware at most of the manufacturing centers during the past week or two. Manufacturers ascribe this to the doubts that exist as to the final outcome of the tariff measures—for there are practically two of them—now before congress, and the natural unwillingness of dealers to operate largely while these matters are in obeyance. The decision which now seems to have been reached on all sides to forego the retroactive clause of the Dingley bill has imparted new strength to the inflow of foreign goods and the idea prevails that no matter what rate of duty is imposed finally the wares now being imported and which have been coming in on so large a scale for some time past will be offered at a very low figure before new laws have time to take effect."

NO DAMAGE.

Although Frosts Have Scared Farmers Near Calcutta.

Farmers in the vicinity of Calcutta have been more or less alarmed because of the frost. Wednesday, Thursday and this morning the white frost was plainly seen, but so far as is known there was no damage. Farmers believe that plants are becoming accustomed to these visitations for look as they will they can find no trace of damage of any sort.

The Cut Has Come.

Henry Chambers & Son, East End, have determined to meet the competition of Pittsburg department stores, and have cut the price of Morado bicycles to $40. This is one of the best wheels in the market, and when it is remembered that it never before sold for less than $60, the extent of the reduction can be seen. Chambers & Son have a dozen of these wheels in stock. *

Another Good Lecture.

Father Kress delivered an interesting lecture in St. Aloysius church last evening. The subject was, "Behold, look ye, was there such sorrow as mine?" Several visiting priests were in attendance. The audience was large. Another lecture will be given tonight.

Ready For Akron.

Company E failed to drill last evening, but a number of recruits were put through the exercises and manual of arms. The transportation vouchers arrived yesterday, and the boys were given instructions to assemble at the armory at 7 o'clock Monday morning.

Settled a Difference.

There was a mysterious scene in Washington street last evening. Two young men met, talked for a few minutes, and one slapped the other. The assaulted party made no attempt at retaliation, and they went their different ways.

M'NICOL POPULAR IN TOLEDO

Lynch Is Playing With Batavia--He Has Not Been Released by Auburn--Keystone at Rock Spring Today and Tomorrow, and Richards on Monday.

The ball game yesterday between the Duquesne County and Athletic club and East Liverpool was won by the home team. Score, 9-2.

Eckendorff started to pitch for the visitors, but after he had been given three bases on balls and three hits had been made, which, mixed with some errors, allowed the home team to score five runs, he was taken out of the box and W. Seifert substituted, while Frank McKenna went to left field. He did not do much better, but managed to keep the hits well scattered, and only four runs were scored off his delivery.
In the third inning the visitors scored their only runs on hits by McKenna, Whitmoyer and McNeil coupled with errors by Reark and Kennedy. The game pitched by McShane was one of the finest ever played on the home grounds, while Percy Albright covered first in a fine manner. For their first game this season the boys played well, but a little practice in throwing and base running would not come amiss. The official score is as follows:

Sporting Notes.
Of the addition to the Lisbon club the Buckeye State says:

"The club has signed two new additional players, William Carey and Carson Finch, of East Liverpool. Both of these men have played in the professional list, and it is confidently anticipated that they will aid materially in placing the local club on a more promising foundation."

Mike Lynch is at present playing ball with the Batavia, N. Y., team. He writes that he was not released by the Auburn manager, but merely loaned to Batavia. He does not like the place, and says he thinks it is probable he will be home in a few days.

Twaddle is playing a first class article of ball with the Auburn team, and is hitting and fielding in splendid shape.

McNicol yesterday with the Toledo team had one putout, three assists and two errors.

Mercer held Louisville down to eight hits, but lost his game 5 to 0. Washington made two hits, and Mercer got one of them.

A Toledo paper has the following to say of McNicol:

"McNicol, the new shortstop, who is not much larger than Keenan, was in the game, while Bill Hassamer played at third and Eggart warmed the bench.
The new man put up a very creditable game, and knows his business when on the base lines, an ailment that never afflicted Eggart to a perceptible degree.
His introduction to the game was a hot line hit from the bat of the first New Castle man up. It was warm enough to sail through an ordinary man's anatomy, but McNicol braced himself and held to it, although it nearly turned him around. Of course, that captured the bleachers."

Keystone and Liverpool are playing at Rock Spring this afternoon. A large crowd is in attendance. The same clubs will play tomorrow at 4 o'clock, dancing at the pavilion commencing at 2 o'clock.
The Richards, of Braddock, are booked for two games on Monday.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MAY 28

THE senate has started very well in dealing with the tariff. If it can but keep up the pace until the last schedule is reached the country will breathe easier.

It is the duty of congress to crush the sugar trust. There is no argument or excuse that can be construed as a reason for the grasping combination's existence.

WEYLER is crafty. Having heard that men can be best reached through their stomachs, he is feeding General Lee, Mr. Calhoun and the consuls on the fat of the land.

McLEAN don't like Thurman, and Thurman don't like McLean, and the other Democrats are being forced to the respective standards of these leaders. And yet they think of harmony.

The commissioners show their wisdom in providing for the infirmary a good system of sewerage. If the improvement must be made there is no good reason why it should be made to last.

McLEAN has formally announced his candidacy, and is preparing to take up his abode in Ohio until after election. How Johnny can stand Cincinnati until next November can only be explained by his burning ambition to join that senate club.

THE stories which come from the mining districts of the state show a condition pitiable in the extreme. There is little demand for coal, and consequently little demand for miners, while the rate of wages is so low that even with steady employment many large families cannot escape suffering.

THE principal business of the senate is to see that not a minute more than what is absolutely required should be put in discussing the Dingley bill. Times are too hard and the people too anxious to admit of the exchange of pleasantries. If the senate has the ability to transact business, the day has come when the senate can prove it.

It would be an excellent idea to elect men to the next legislature who will not only send a Republican to the senate, but who will spend a portion of their time passing a measure which will insure for the state better roads. Massachusetts now has an annual appropriation of $600,000, and it has been found such a good investment that even the unconsolable of a few years ago are enthusiastic over the system.

NOT A VOTE MAKER.

There is no reason to believe that the presence of William J. Bryan in Ohio next fall will tend to increase the Democratic vote. Bryan was here last year. They took him all over the state in a special train. Of course the people flocked by the thousand to see him, but he could not convince them that his side of the question was right. Never, perhaps, did so many potters turn out to hear a political speaker, and never was the vote against him so heavy. Not only was that noticed in East Liverpool and throughout Ohio, but it was true of the country. In 85 large cities which in 1892 gave 162,000 Democratic plurality, the Republican plurality last year was 464,000, and the majority of these cities were visited by Bryan. He talked in 28 states, and only carried six, but one of that number being a doubtful state. In view of these facts little can be expected from Mr. Bryan as a moulder of public opinion.

Another Petition.

A petition was circulated today asking the board of education to select a superintendent regardless of any other petitions in circulation.

Rainbows For the Stage.

A most novel and ingenious method of adding the representation of a rainbow to stage realism has recently been discovered, the effect which is produced being as beautiful as the means employed are simple. The apparatus consists of an ordinary box having a semicircular opening in front to give the shape of a rainbow, within which are two candelabra prisms, mounted on supports, so that they can be revolved by means of handles fixed outside. To work the apparatus a strong light is projected through the prisms and through the opening, across which strips of wire are fixed in order to break up the rays, and thence on to a back drop scene. When the prisms are turned in opposite directions, it is asserted that the most beautiful and vivid color effects are produced. —London Public Opinion.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MAY 28

The senate has started very well in dealing with the tariff. If it can but keep up the pace until the last schedule is reached the country will breathe easier.

It is the duty of congress to crush the sugar trust. There is no argument or excuse that can be construed as a reason for the grasping combination's existence.

WEYLER is crafty. Having heard that men can be best reached through their stomachs, he is feeding General Lee, Mr. Calhoun and the consuls on the fat of the land.

McLEAN don't like Thurman, and Thurman don't like McLean, and the other Democrats are being forced to the respective standards of these leaders. And yet they think of harmony.

The commissioners show their wisdom in providing for the infirmary a good system of sewerage. If the improvement must be made there is no good reason why it should be made to last.

McLEAN has formally announced his candidacy, and is preparing to take up his abode in Ohio until after election. How Johnny can stand Cincinnati until next November can only be explained by his burning ambition to join that senate club.

The stories which come from the mining districts of the state show a condition pitiable in the extreme. There is little demand for coal, and consequently little demand for miners, while the rate of wages is so low that even with steady employment many large families cannot escape suffering.

The principal business of the senate is to see that not a minute more than what is absolutely required should be put in discussing the Dingley bill. Times are too hard and the people too anxious to admit of the exchange of pleasantries. If the senate has the ability to transact business, the day has come when the senate can prove it.

It would be an excellent idea to elect men to the next legislature who will not only send a Republican to the senate, but who will spend a portion of their time passing a measure which will insure for the state better roads. Massachusetts now has an annual appropriation of $600,000, and it has been found such a good investment that even the unconsolable of a few years ago are enthusiastic over the system.

NOT A VOTE MAKER.

There is no reason to believe that the presence of William J. Bryan in Ohio next fall will tend to increase the Democratic vote. Bryan was here last year. They took him all over the state in a special train. Of course the people flocked by the thousand to see him, but he could not convince them that his side of the question was right. Never, perhaps, did so many potters turn out to hear a political speaker, and never was the vote against him so heavy. Not only was that noticed in East Liverpool and throughout Ohio, but it was true of the country. In 85 large cities which in 1892 gave 162,000 Democratic plurality, the Republican plurality last year was 464,000, and the majority of these cities were visited by Bryan. He talked in 28 states, and only carried six, but one of that number being a doubtful state. In view of these facts little can be expected from Mr. Bryan as a moulder of public opinion.

Another Petition.

A petition was circulated today asking the board of education to select a superintendent regardless of any other petitions in circulation.

NO MORE THAN TALK.

Little Progress Has Been Made In the Salem Pottery Deal.

A prominent resident of Salem, who knows all there is to know of interest concerning his town, was questioned by the NEWS REVIEW about the reported deal of the board of trade of that place with George Sebring and E. H. Sebring, and said:

"I can't understand how that story originated. About a month ago there was some talk of trying to have a pottery there, but since that time no definite action has been taken. No papers have been drawn up, and I am safe in saying no deal is on. If there was anything in it I would know."

The Salem Herald says the statement of a local paper as to the bonus is greatly exaggerated, and that the Sebrings did not confer with the board yesterday. Nothing definite will be given out for some time.

NOT FOR FREE SILVER.

Neither Did Professor Sanor Support Free Trade.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—My attention has been called to a statement which is being circulated by some of those who fancy themselves my enemies. The statement is made that at a recent meeting of the Ohio State Teachers' association at Put-In-Bay, I had made a speech advocating free trade and free silver.

I did not address the association on any subject whatever. I never make political speeches. I have never been an advocate of either free trade or free silver. It is apparent, therefore, that the statement is false in every particular.

S. D. SANOR,
Superintendent of Public Schools.

THE LAST DAY OF SCHOOL.

It Was Appropriately Observed by the Scholars.

Gone is the school year of '97. At noon today the doors of all the public school buildings in the city were closed, not to be opened for the purpose of holding school until next September. All the rooms of the several buildings were neatly decorated with flags, bunting and flowers and presented a pretty appearance.

Appropriate exercises were held in the various rooms. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the 45 teachers met in the Central building, and went over the work of the past year. This occupied no little time, and when their registers were given to Professor Sanor they received their salaries. The vacation will last a little over three months.

A PAIR OF MORTGAGES.

They Rest Heavily on the Street Railway.

LISBON, May 28.—[Special]—Charles E. Squires, of Squires, Sanders & Dempsey, of Cleveland, arrived in Lisbon last evening with the deed for the East Liverpool street railway in his inside pocket. It was this morning left with Recorder Lease for record.

The directors of the road, acting with the approval and consent of the stockholders, have issued bonds to the amount of $300,000 to the Boston Safe Deposit Trust company. These bonds are 20-year income gold bonds of $500 each. The interest on one-half is to be payable in gold coin annually, the date being June 1. On the remaining half the interest will be paid semi-annually on June 1, and Sept. 1. Each is to be paid from the earnings of the road. Two mortgages of $150,000 each were given to the Boston company to secure the bonds, and were also filed. The bonds were issued for the purpose of raising money to purchase new equipment.

GONE TO ENGLAND

Their Friends Were at the Station to Wish Them Godspeed.

There was a large crowd at the station at noon today. They were friends of the following people, who will sail on the Umbria for England, tomorrow: Mrs. Wase, Mrs. Clay, Miss Harker, Miss Simpson, Miss Taylor, Roscoe Dunkerly and Master Simpson. The party will remain in the old country over a month, and will visit all the large potteries while there.

WILL COMPLAIN.

Board of Health Will Be Asked to Consider Alleys.

The board of health at their next meeting will be notified of the bad condition of Locust and Short alleys. One of the residents of Locust alley will make a complaint against an individual who has been keeping his horse in a coal house, and another who has of late been burning straw in a back yard. The latter is a direct violation of the law.

A Busy Day.

Yesterday was a busy day at the passenger depot. Commercial men were numerous, and few if any of them had less than two trunks. The baggage during the day was heavy, and considering everything the day was a remarkably good one.

The Train Will Stop.

Arrangements have been made whereby all persons who attend the dedication of the soldiers' monument at Bethesda tomorrow can reach home on the evening train. The train will stop at Millport Saturday evening.

A Bad Walk.

The board walk in the West End is in a bad condition. Last evening several people fell while going to the circus by stumbling on some of the upturned planks. In some places it is very dark.

Struck a Post.

A wheelman lost control of his bicycle in Fifth street, last night, and came in contact with a pole near Jackson. The wheel was damaged, and the rider's face scratched.

Going to England.

Miss Kittie Harker left the city at noon today for New York, from which place she will go to England. Miss Harker will spend several months abroad.

Excursion to Toledo.

June 7 and 8 excursion tickets will be sold to Toledo, via Pennsylvania lines, for Ohio Sunday school convention; return coupons valid Friday, June 11 inclusive.

A Short Session.

The stationary engineers held a short business session in their hall on Market street, last evening. Nothing out of the regular order of business was transacted.

No Business.

Police circles were quiet last night. Only one lone bum was given a night's shelter, and this morning he was told to get out of town.

A Good Dog.

The firemen yesterday were presented with a dog. It is an English coach, and is a fine specimen.

OPPOSED TO THE DUTY

Representatives of Leading Pottery Districts

WERE BEFORE THE COMMITTEE

Senators Hanna, Foraker, Sewell and Elkins Urged That the Schedule of the Original Dingley Bill Be Restored—No Decision Reached.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—[Special]—An important Ohio industry was given consideration last night by the senate finance committee. The committee meets each night at the Arlington hotel to receive and discuss suggestions relative to the pending tariff measure offered by the Republican senators. Last night the committee had under consideration the pottery schedule. Potters from Ohio, New Jersey and North Carolina—the principal producing districts in the United States—have entered vigorous objections to the schedule proposed by the senate committee. They declare that if the duties as fixed in the senate bill are adopted, they will be utterly unable to make good the promises of an increase of wages which they have made their employees.

Senators Hanna, Foraker, Sewell, of New Jersey, and Elkins, of West Virginia, were before the committee last night, urging that the pottery schedule of the original Dingley bill be restored. All of them presented elaborate arguments in favor of the Dingley schedule. At this writing no decision has been reached by the committee, and it is likely that the determination of the committee will not be known until it is announced in the senate.

A BIG MAIN.

Birds Are Already Being Brought to the City.

All arrangements for the chicken fights to be held next Sunday have been completed. The fights will be held within two miles of the city, and the visitors will have some little walking. The birds have started to arrive, and four of them were brought to the city this morning from the county districts. The purses to be put up on the fights range from $5 to $50.

These bonds are 20-year income gold bonds of $500 each. The interest on one-half is to be payable in gold coin annually, the date being June 1. On the remaining half the interest will be paid semi-annually on June 1, and Sept. 1. Each is to be paid from the earnings of the road. Two mortgages of $150,000 each were given to the Boston company to secure the bonds, and were also filed. The bonds were issued for the purpose of raising money to purchase new equipment.

GONE TO ENGLAND

Their Friends Were at the Station to Wish Them Godspeed.

There was a large crowd at the station at noon today. They were friends of the following people, who will sail on the Umbria for England, tomorrow: Mrs. Wase, Mrs. Clay, Miss Harker, Miss Simpson, Miss Taylor, Roscoe Dunkerly and Master Simpson. The party will remain in the old country over a month, and will visit all the large potteries while there.

WILL COMPLAIN.

Board of Health Will Be Asked to Consider Alleys.

The board of health at their next meeting will be notified of the bad condition of Locust and Short alleys. One of the residents of Locust alley will make a complaint against an individual who has been keeping his horse in a coal house, and another who has of late been burning straw in a back yard. The latter is a direct violation of the law.

A Busy Day.

Yesterday was a busy day at the passenger depot. Commercial men were numerous, and few if any of them had less than two trunks. The baggage during the day was heavy, and considering everything the day was a remarkably good one.

The Train Will Stop.

Arrangements have been made whereby all persons who attend the dedication of the soldiers' monument at Bethesda tomorrow can reach home on the evening train. The train will stop at Millport Saturday evening.

A Bad Walk.

The board walk in the West End is in a bad condition. Last evening several people fell while going to the circus by stumbling on some of the upturned planks. In some places it is very dark.

Struck a Post.

A wheelman lost control of his bicycle in Fifth street, last night, and came in contact with a pole near Jackson. The wheel was damaged, and the rider's face scratched.

Going to England.

Miss Kittie Harker left the city at noon today for New York, from which place she will go to England. Miss Harker will spend several months abroad.

Excursion to Toledo.

June 7 and 8 excursion tickets will be sold to Toledo, via Pennsylvania lines, for Ohio Sunday school convention; return coupons valid Friday, June 11 inclusive.

A Short Session.

The stationary engineers held a short business session in their hall on Market street, last evening. Nothing out of the regular order of business was transacted.

No Business.

Police circles were quiet last night. Only one lone bum was given a night's shelter, and this morning he was told to get out of town.

A Good Dog.

The firemen yesterday were presented with a dog. It is an English coach, and is a fine specimen.

OPPOSED TO THE DUTY

Representatives of Leading Pottery Districts

WERE BEFORE THE COMMITTEE

Senators Hanna, Foraker, Sewell and Elkins Urged That the Schedule of the Original Dingley Bill Be Restored--No Decision Reached.

WASHINGTON, May 27--[Special]--An important Ohio industry was given consideration last night by the senate finance committee. The committee meets each night at the Arlington hotel to receive and discuss suggestions relative to the pending tariff measure offered by the Republican senators. Last night the committee had under consideration the pottery schedule. Potters from Ohio, New Jersey and North Carolina--the principal producing districts in the United States--have entered vigorous objections to the schedule proposed by the senate committee. They declare that if the duties as fixed in the senate bill are adopted, they will be utterly unable to make good the promises of an increase of wages which they have made their employees.

Senators Hanna, Foraker, Sewell, of New Jersey, and Elkins, of West Virginia, were before the committee last night, urging that the pottery schedule of the original Dingley bill be restored. All of them presented elaborate arguments in favor of the Dingley schedule. At this writing no decision has been reached by the committee, and it is likely that the determination of the committee will not be known until it is announced in the senate.

BROKE INTO A SCHOOL

There Are Wicked Children In Gardendale.

JANITRESS CAUGHT THE CROWD

They Got Nothing For Their Trouble—A Struggle Before the Youngsters Were Taken—No Damage Done—They Were After the Collection.

There are a number of small boys in Gardendale who are just now in danger of spending a few years at the Lancaster reform farm.

Miss Shaw, the teacher, collected some money for the purpose of purchasing flags with which to decorate the building. Early in the evening the janitress, Mrs. Roberts, heard a noise at the building which caused her to believe some one had forced an entrance. Calling on her daughter for help, she hastened to the school and found that two boys had broken in the door, and were ransacking the place. She took a position which prevented egress in the usual manner, and called upon them to surrender. One was kind enough to submit, but the other was made of different stuff and ran to a window. Fortunately this was guarded by Miss Roberts, and when the lad appeared there was a struggle. He caught her by the throat, and did his best to force her to the ground, but the girl pluckily held her own until help arrived. The boys begged piteously for leniency, but Mrs. Roberts was firm, and the matter was promptly reported to Doctor Norris. It is probable they will escape with a reprimand. Their presence at the building can only be accounted for by the suspicion that they were after the collection.

A ROAD RACE

Will Be Conducted by the East End Athletic Club.

The East End Athletic club will give the first road race of the season next Saturday, June 5. The starting point is at the Smith's Ferry station and will end at the club rooms in the East End. The start will be made at 6:30 in the evening. There are at present seven entries, and the prize is a gold medal.

BROKE HER LEG.

An Accident Happened to Mrs. Anna Gray.

Mrs. Anna Gray, of the West End, met with a painful accident last evening. She had stepped out on the back porch when her feet slipped from under her, and she fell, breaking her leg. A physician was summoned, who set the broken bones, and today she is resting easy.

All Were Hungry.

A pitiable case of destitution came to light in the lower part of the city last night. The sufferers were two children and their mother, and they had nothing to eat for over a day. They were attended to by several charitable ladies who heard of the matter.

On the River.

The river is falling, and has now reached the 5.3 mark, the lowest so far this year.

Passed up—J. C. Risher, John Moren, Pacific No. 2, Stella Moren, Lorena, Bedford, Belle McGowan and Virginia. Down—Ben Hur and Bertha.

It was made definitely known this morning that the Queen City is due at this port July 14. A large number of Cincinnati people will be on board to make the round trip.

Resigned Her Position.

Miss Ada Hurst, night operator at the telephone office, has resigned her position to take effect June 15. She will return to her home in Uniontown. The young lady has made many friends during her brief stay in the city. The position has not yet been filled.

A Joint Meeting.

The cemetery trustees and the committee appointed by council will this evening hold a joint session to see what arrangements they can make, looking toward the vacating of the old cemetery.

ONLY ONE WORD.

Only one word, dear, to say to you
Before the throng thrusts us apart;
Only one moment to pray to you,
Goddess enshrined in my heart.

Only one life, dear, to live for you.
Will you spurn it? It lies at your feet.
Only one heart's love to give for you.
Will you reign in that heart, my sweet?

Only one song, dear, to sing with you,
Singer and song of you blest.
Only one treasure to bring with you—
Your heart. What matters the rest?

Only one word to implore of you—
Word that is! Couldn't you guess?
Only one whisper—no more—of you.
Say—shall that whisper be—"Yes?"

FAITH IN HUMAN NATURE.

A New York Cafe That Reposes Implicit Confidence In Its Customers.

It is rather surprising to find right on Park row a cafe that trusts its customers perfectly. This place has probably 300 regular callers. It is open day and night, and is run on a system of implicit faith in the honesty of man. While not a place strictly high class, it offers what might be called a very "comfortable" meal, with trimmings before or after. Altogether, it is simply a plain place for an everyday man, with occasionally a little something extra on the bill of fare equaling anything in the city.

This, of course, can be said of hundreds of similar places, but the system of payment is something novel. The proprietor, a stout German, boasts no cashier, as there is very little cash to take in. On the cigar counter is a day-book. The customer comes in, goes to the ice chest in the corner if he wishes and takes a quiet nip out of a black bottle. Then he orders what he wants on the bill of fare. It is served quickly and neatly. He then counts up his own indebtedness and puts it opposite his name in the book, including the "nip," or a cigar, if he prefers that. He then walks serenely out, knowing no proprietor is glaring at him and no cashier yelling for him to come back and make the cash register good.

This sort of childlike simplicity in running a business in the very heart of a city filled with buncoers, green goods men and gold bricks without number is said to be a winning venture. Customers invariably settle weekly, Friday and Saturday being pay days, and the proprietor says he has as yet to lose a bill through deliberate fraud. A little experience with a man like that is almost enough to renew one's confidence in human nature.—New York Letter in Pittsburg Dispatch.

Primitive Surgery.

It is difficult at this day to realize the horrors of a surgical operation before the discovery of anesthesia. The surgeon's knife was necessarily pitiless, and the victim could only writhe and scream under the torture. The horror of an operation, even to a hero, may be better understood by a story of Nelson, included in a paper by Dr. John Ashurst on "Surgery Before the Days of Anesthetics," published in the Philadelphia Record:

No braver or more gallant gentleman ever lived than Admiral Viscount Nelson, and after his right elbow had been shattered by a French bullet in the assault at Tenerife he manifested the utmost courage, refusing to be taken to the nearest ship lest the sight of his injury should alarm the wife of a fellow officer whose own fate was uncertain.

When his own ship was reached, he climbed up its side without assistance, saying:

"Tell the surgeon to make haste and get his instruments. I know I must lose my right arm, so the sooner it is off the better."

"He underwent the amputation," so says a private letter of one of his midshipmen, "with the same firmness and courage that have always marked his character."

And yet so painfully was Nelson affected by the coldness of the operator's knife that when next going into action at the famous battle of the Nile he gave standing orders to his surgeons that hot water should always be kept in readiness during an engagement, so that if another operation should be required he might at least have the poor comfort of being cut with warm instruments.

The Great Eastern as a Show Ship.

The last days of the Great Eastern were certainly sad, considering the purpose for which she was designed and the great work she did in cable laying. For some time before she was broken up on the mud of the River Mersey, near Liverpool, she was on view as a show ship. One firm of Liverpool clothiers hired her for a season, and in addition to using her for its advertising purposes made use of her for catch penny shows. In the large cable tank a circus was fitted up, and performances given at so much a head, while other exhibitions of the Coney Island type were spread all over her deck.—New York Sun.

The Medical Society of Bern has inaugurated a plan for the suppression of press notices of suicides, as it has been observed that epidemics of suicides, so called, come from "suggestions," acquired through printed accounts of them.

In former times deformed people were frequently thrown into prison to be kept out of sight.

Primitive Surgery.

It is difficult at this day to realize the horrors of a surgical operation before the discovery of anaesthesia. The surgeon's knife was necessarily pitiless, and the victim could only writhe and scream under the torture. The horror of an operation, even to a hero, may be better understood by a story of Nelson, included in a paper by Dr. John Ashurst on "Surgery Before the Days of Anaesthetics," published in the Philadelphia Record:

No braver or more gallant gentleman ever lived than Admiral Viscount Nelson, and after his right elbow had been shattered by a French bullet in the assault at Tenerife he manifested the utmost courage, refusing to be taken to the nearest ship lest the sight of his injury should alarm the wife of a fellow officer whose own fate was uncertain.

When his own ship was reached, he climbed up its side without assistance, saying:

"Tell the surgeon to make haste and get his instruments. I know I must lose my right arm, so the sooner it is off the better."

"He underwent the amputation," so says a private letter of one of his midshipmen, "with the same firmness and courage that have always marked his character."

And yet so painfully was Nelson affected by the coldness of the operator's knife that when next going into action at the famous battle of the Nile he gave standing orders to his surgeons that hot water should always be kept in readiness during an engagement, so that if another operation should be required he might at least have the poor comfort of being cut with warm instruments.

The Great Eastern as a Show Ship.

The last days of the Great Eastern were certainly sad, considering the purpose for which she was designed and the great work she did in cable laying. For some time before she was broken up on the mud of the River Mersey, near Liverpool, she was on view as a show ship. One firm of Liverpool clothiers hired her for a season, and in addition to using her for its advertising purposes made use of her for catch penny shows. In the large cable tank a circus was fitted up, and performances given at so much a head, while other exhibitions of the Coney Island type were spread all over her deck.—New York Sun.

The Medical Society of Bern has inaugurated a plan for the suppression of press notices of suicides, as it has been observed that epidemics of suicides, so called, come from "suggestions," acquired through printed accounts of them.

In former times deformed people were frequently thrown into prison to be kept out of sight.

The News of Wellsville.

Since the new company took hold of the electric light plant they are pushing things successfully, and giving a good service. This week they fitted the rooms of the Young Men's Catholic association, Ellwood Bunting's cafe and J. C. Catlett's home with incandescents, putting in a vast number of lights.

David Harris, of Nicholson addition, was standing in Connell's grocery when Emory Stackhouse attempted to pass the counterfeit coin and can identify Stackhouse as the man who attempted to do so.

Freight Brakeman R. B. Marshall came in on his run yesterday with a badly crushed and bruised foot. At Hudson his foot was caught between the step on the engine tank and the depot platform, crushing it badly.

Agricultural Education.

Professor Henry P. Armsby, dean of the School of Agriculture of Pennsylvania State college, says that the agricultural products of Pennsylvania exceed the total iron ore, coal and oil products of the state by $3,000,000. He also makes a strong plea for agricultural education. "Whether we like it or not," he says, "we are face to face with new problems and new conditions. In this process of evolution, by which agriculture is adjusting itself to its new environment, as in every other process of evolution, the fittest will survive. The community or the individual farmer that can successfully readjust its agriculture to these new conditions will continue to prosper, while the farmer or the community which fails to do this will be borne down by forces as pitiless and as irresistible as gravitation."

A Profitable Speculation.

One copy of Caxton's "De Confessionibus Amantis," or "The Confession of a Lover," was the most profitable speculation ever made in books. A Dublin bookseller of the last century bought a number of volumes at secondhand, as he supposed of no great value, paying for them one and sixpence, and found in the package this rare work of Caxton's, which he afterward sold for over $1,500

Chickens Reared on Milk.

A special breed of chickens, known as the poulet de lait or poulet mignon, has been reared in France for eating purposes. The fowls are hardly larger than a pigeon and when cooked are said to appeal particularly to gourmets. The chickens themselves are reared on a diet of boiled milk and barley flour, which makes them plump and gives their flesh a particular delicacy.—New York World.

Witness Versus Lawyer.

Counsel (for the defense, cross examining detective)—You are so exceedingly clever that I have no doubt you are quite capable of discovering the proverbial needle in the bundle of hay.

Witness—Well, there are some needles I fancy I could find.

Counsel—Ah! A knitting needle perhaps? Witness—No; Cleopatra's. (Collapse of counsel.)—London Sketch.
